

VICTORY SCORED BY OPPOSITION

Government Declines to Resign, and Will Ask Vote of Confidence.

ACTION IS GREAT SURPRISE

It Comes at Time When Many Members of House Are Absent.

London, November 11.—While the House of Commons was debating the financial provisions of the home rule bill in committee this afternoon, an unexpected vote on an amendment offered by Sir Frederick Banbury, a Unionist member for the city of London, resulted in an opposition victory by a majority of twenty-two.

The Conservatives were jubilant, and loudly demanded that the Liberal government resign, which, according to precedents, it should do, if the vote, which was 228 to 206, was a genuine test of strength of the government on the measure.

The temporary defeat of the government caused a great political sensation, but did not result in its resignation. The Cabinet held a meeting to-night and decided to present a resolution in the house to-morrow which will be practically a demand for a vote of confidence, and after some parliamentary red tape will endeavor to have Sir Frederick Banbury's amendment re-submitted and expunged.

The younger Conservatives prepared the trap for the home rulers and succeeded in getting a vote when many members were in the country or absent from the house, not expecting that important business would be taken up.

The government's majorities on previous details of the bill have been in the neighborhood of 100. But there has been much dissatisfaction among members of all parties over the provision compelling other sections of the United Kingdom to contribute to the support of Ireland without a voice in the expenditure of the money.

The Cabinet council held after the government's defeat lasted two hours, at the end of which its decision not to resign was announced. An official statement which was issued declared that the adoption of the amendment was clearly due to a snap division on a motion which was not even put on the order paper, and which was destructive of the resolution passed November 7 by a majority of 121.

"The government, therefore," the statement continues, "does not consider that its defeat necessitates any change in its program, which, in respect to home rule, has been supported by majorities seldom short of 100."

Petersburg, Va., November 11.—The Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions in the Diocese of Southern Virginia, which has been holding its annual session in St. Paul's Church in this city since Saturday morning, adjourned this evening after a most profitable and interesting meeting. The attendance of delegates from all portions of the diocese was much larger than usual. All reports submitted were encouraging, and the spirit of the convention was enthusiastic. The convention was addressed this morning by Miss Grace Lindley, of New York, head of the Woman's Auxiliaries in America, on the subject of "Mission Study." Her remarks aroused great interest, and were heard with the closest attention. The Rev. J. G. Meen, D. D., of Brazil, spoke encouragingly of woman's work in that country, and the Rev. Otis Mead spoke on the work of church extension in the diocese.

The question of meeting next spring with the Diocesan Council in its fall, was decided in favor of the latter, and the convention will meet next fall in Abingdon.

Officers Elected.

The auxiliary to-day elected officers as follows:
President and secretary, Mrs. John D. Letcher, of Norfolk; vice-presidents, Mrs. A. M. Randolph, Norfolk; Mrs. Beverly D. Tucker, of Lynchburg, and Miss Emily Epes, of City Point; assistant secretary, Mrs. John Newport Green, Norfolk; president of Junior Auxiliary, Mrs. John D. Lloyd, Big Stone Gap, president of Baby Branch, Miss Mary Garrett, of Williamsburg; custodian of united offerings, Mrs. H. M. Castle, Norfolk; church periodical clerk, Mrs. Wm. Anderson, Lexington; educational secretaries, Mrs. Louisa Barton Meyers, Norfolk, and Mrs. T. D. Hobart, of Roanoke.

Narrow Escape of a Family.

By the escape of gas in their home on Harrison Street, into which they had just recently moved, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bragg and their child narrowly escaped serious consequences. It was not death, from asphyxiation Saturday night. The parents were awakened by the gasping of the child, to find the room filled with gas. The child was hurriedly taken into the fresh air and revived. But for the timely movement of the little one, who was seriously affected, fatal results might have occurred. They are all right to-day. The gas was found to be escaping from a pipe leading to the cooking range, the stop-cock in which was loosened or accidentally partially turned.

Death of Mrs. Callender.

Mrs. Beattie Meade Callender, widow of David Callender, died this morning about 4 o'clock at her residence on Jefferson Street, in her eighty-second year. She was greatly beloved in the community. Mrs. Callender was the eldest daughter of John Everett and Mrs. Rebecca Meade, and was born on September 4, 1831, near Reams Station, Prince George County, at the time the Petersburg and Weldon Railroad was being constructed. She was for years the president of the Ladies' Memorial Association, was the first president of the board of managers of the Petersburg Hospital and was a woman of noble Christian character. On November 7, 1855, she was married to David Callender, a native of Scotland, who preceded her to the grave about two years ago. Her surviving children are: Mrs. Margaret Patterson, Mrs. Lottie Constable and Thomas Callender, of this city; Dr. J. Meade Callender, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; and David Callender, of Norfolk. The funeral will take place from Old Blad-

Gentlemen,—I cannot help but write you as to the merit of Astyptodyne. Some time ago my younger son was severely burned with hot lead, and the wound would not heal, even though it had the doctor's attention; but upon the advice of a friend I purchased a bottle of Astyptodyne, and after a few applications the wound healed perfectly and did not leave a scar. I shall always feel it my duty to recommend it wherever I can.

With best wishes for the success of such a valuable remedy, I remain,
Yours very truly,
L. E. DUNSMORE.

Gentlemen,—It gives me great pleasure to recommend your Astyptodyne Healing Oil for sores. My little girl had a very bad sore leg about four or five months. I had several doctors to her, but they failed to cure it. I also used every remedy people recommended to me, but they failed. Your Mr. Anderson advised me to use Astyptodyne Healing Oil, and after using four 50c bottles she is entirely well, and I cannot say too much for your great remedy.

Yours very truly,
MRS. M. BOWEN.

Gentlemen,—This is to certify that I used your Astyptodyne Healing Oil on my little daughter for tonsillitis in a very severe case. The throat was very much inflamed and very white, and in 30 minutes after I mopped her throat she was able to sleep well, and seemed to get relief almost instantly. I had my family physician, Dr. Slade, to see her, and he said just continue the use of the Astyptodyne Healing Oil, which I did, and she only missed school two days. I have been selling your preparations for the past two years, and have found them to be entirely satisfactory.

Gentlemen,—My son, who is a carpenter, while carrying a heavy piece of timber, stepped on a twenty-penny spike, which had been driven through a plank and had rusted. It went entirely through his foot. I dressed the wound with Astyptodyne Healing Oil, and the soreness was quickly relieved and the swelling reduced. On the third day he was able to go to work again, and within ten days he was entirely healed, and it has given no trouble since. I have since used Astyptodyne Healing Oil for cuts and bruises, and consider it a most valuable household remedy, and will not be without it as long as it can be procured.

Yours very truly,
C. W. LUCAS.
